

Shelly Manuel currently serves as the Director of Advancement at The Walker School in Marietta, GA. Shelly is finishing her sixteenth year in independent school fundraising after working in corporate sales support early in her career. She feels extremely lucky to have found a career that she loves with independent school fundraising and grow her career where she has served in a Director role the past twelve years. Shelly graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Miami University in Oxford, OH and currently lives in the Vinings area with her husband Skip, son Finn and daughter Kate.